

OUR TOWN

VOLUME 24, No. 35

NARBERTH, PENNSYLVANIA, JUNE 3, 1938

PRICE, FIVE CENTS

Plans Are Completed for the Summer Playground Activities

At the Narberth community grounds beginning June 27. Recreational supervision will be provided from 9:30 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. and from 6 P. M. to 8 P. M. on weekdays and from 9:30 A. M. to 1 P. M. on Saturday, D. S. T.

On opening Monday leagues and teams will be organized for competitive play in baseball, basketball, tennis, paddle tennis, softball and other sports. Those wishing to play on any of the organized teams should be present for registration that day—the 27th.

Every Thursday afternoon a special event is planned, the exact details to be announced by the recreational supervisors from time to time; and Friday afternoons will be devoted to a weekly assembly program. Games and activities especially appropriate for the younger groups will be held daily in the morning with a story hour at 1 P. M. An attractive recreational activity will be available for all, regardless of age, as exemplified in the handicraft program which will be graduated from paper cut-outs, beadwork and drawing, to leather, metal and amberl work.

Regulations governing the use of the playground and its equipment during the play season will be formulated as needed by the supervisors. The use of the grounds will be barred to those who do not observe such rules or who violate the standing regulations against the use of profane or objectionable language, smoking, bicycle riding on the grounds, or other improper conduct. Co-operation with the supervisors is asked of those using the grounds so that maximum enjoyment may be had by all.

The supervisors, as previously announced, will be Messrs. A. B. Weatherall and Isaac Knoll and Miss E. L. Dildine.

Memorial Day

Was Well Celebrated Here by Legion and Public.

The Harold D. Speakman Post placed wreaths on graves Saturday, attended services at Chaplain R. E. Keighton's Baptist Church Sunday morning, aided Ardmore's post in exercises at Gladwyne Sunday afternoon, and on Memorial Day conducted the annual parade through the streets of Narberth, winding up with exercises at the new memorial grouping on the playground.

Although none of Philadelphia's Civil War veterans was able to parade in the city, Narberth was privileged to honor its survivor of the Grand Army of the Republic, Henry Doll, of Iona avenue, who had a place of honor in the procession.

Also in the parade were Mrs. Emma Speakman and Mrs. John Smith, Gold Star mothers; several local members of the Purple Heart (order of veterans wounded in service, founded by George Washington); the Legion Auxiliary, whose gift of new colors was appropriately appreciatively accepted; borough officials, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Mulieres, Italian-American Club, ladies of the D. A. R.; the C. A. R. . . . and the school children had a grand time on the fire trucks, and piloting their decorated bikes.

The Fourth of July will be on a Monday, also.

See "Around the Town."

Henry Doll, Whose 90th Birthday was in January, has been a resident of Narberth for the past ten years. He enlisted in 1863 when only fourteen years of age and served on the Flagship Portsmouth, under Admiral Farragut. He also served on the Tallahassee, a gunboat on the Red River, which he boarded from Mississippi, and on the U. S. S. Elk. From there he went to the Sebago, through the blockade of August 5, 1864, and the battle of Mobile Bay and the capture of Mobile City. About January, 1865, he helped fit up the U. S. S. Brooklyn and was sent to Brazil on a two-year cruise. He was honorably discharged at Philadelphia, September 11, 1867, while serving under Captain Patterson and Rear Admiral Cridon.

He is the last survivor of Post 31. He is the father of four children, fifteen grandchildren, and nine great grandchildren.

Kindergarteners, etc. . . .

Registration for all children entering the Narberth Public School next fall for the first time will be held in the school office, Saturday morning, June 4, from nine to twelve. Children must present birth certificates or other evidence of the date of birth, and vaccination certificates.

Narberth Players

Invite the Public, Man, Woman and Child, to Their Annual picnic, this Saturday, at Valley Forge Park, the lower grove. Sports events start at 3. At 4 there will be a softball game for men, and at 5, one for girls. At 6, a steak roast and supper (bring your own). At 7, the award of prizes, which will include gate prizes. And at 8, twilight singing, with accordion accompaniment.

George Werner heads the committee.

Third Annual Fair

And carnival of the Merion Fire Company will begin tonight, at Lancaster pike and Church road, Ardmore. There will be wire performers 35 feet in the air without safety nets, a Ferris wheel and other attractions for old and young. A Buick sedan will be awarded the final day—Saturday the 11th. Mrs. Mary Scott McShane heads the Women's Committee and James Jenkins the men's.

The Narberth Men's Club

Now being formed, with J. Milton Kent as leader, will hold an all-day outing at Betterton, Md., Saturday, the 11th. All men are welcome. Buses will leave the Baptist Church, Elmwood and Narberth avenues, at 8 A. M.

To the Rotary

International Convention at San Francisco,

June 19-24, Ralph S. Dunne, Shirley road, Narberth, is going next Thursday. It's Rotary's 29th annual, and fellow-Main Liners going as delegates are the Ardmore Club's Robert Pickering, Elmer Althouse and Ralph Springer, newly-elected district governor, who will go by motor.

Mr. Dunne, who with Mrs. Dunne will go by train, plans before returning, July 3, to visit Chicago, Colorado Springs, Denver, the Grand Canyon, Boulder Dam, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City and the Yellowstone. Mr. Dunne, president of the Narberth Business Council, secretary of the Narberth Planning Commission, one-time head of the Narberth Civic Association, is former president of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club.

Sunday School Picnic

Of All Saints' Church is Saturday the 11th. . . . Cars leave the church at 10 A. M. and return by 4:30. Annual parish outing, on the grounds of the Montgomery School as usual, is Wednesday the 15th.

The Altar Guild, to raise money for its work, is having a bridge and swimming party at Mrs. Henry W. Pfeffer's, Moreno road, this Friday.

351 Seniors,

The second largest graduating class in Lower Merion High School's history (last June there were 377), will receive their diplomas this evening at Ardmore.

Miss Margaret Squier's

Students of piano and harmony will give their spring recital at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Narberth and Woodbine, 7:30 P. M., Friday, June 10.

Narberth's Softball

Team was surprised by the lowly Suburbanites Tuesday night and lost a close one at the school playground, 4-3. Narberth is now seventh in the 14-team circuit.

Republican Women of Pennsylvania will hold an all-day Regional conference Wednesday for the purpose of "equipping workers and strengthening leaders" for the fall campaign. The subject will be "The Republican Party and the November Election."

Tax Bills

Are Out Earlier This Year, for Earlier Returns

The reason, as Tax Collector John R. Hall is careful to explain, is due to a change in the State law. Under the new statutes, the 5 per cent discount date on borough and county taxes has been advanced from October 1 to September 1, and the penalty date has been moved up also, though not quite so close to summer.

Mr. Hall is getting the bills ready now, for mailing this month. They are dated July 1. In explaining the advanced payment dates, he says:

"The responsibilities and duties of the tax collector are regulated by legislative authority and no distinction can be used or favors granted to any taxable, changing these regulations as to collection and enforcement of such collections.

"Please note change in dates of discounts and penalties. It should be understood that there is no desire on the part of the tax collector or local authorities to arbitrarily advance the dates of discounts and penalties. These are covered by State statute."

Juniors' Chairmen

Will Hold Their First Board Meeting Monday.

They will be guests of the new president, Miss Jean Staples, at her home, 124 Woodside avenue. Newly appointed, they are:

Braille, Mrs. T. E. Fischer; Citizenship, Miss Catherine Patton; Dance, Miss Margie Hoffman; Education, Miss Eleanor Rarick; sub-chairman, Child Study, Mrs. Wayne Burnside; Fellowship, Mrs. J. H. Jefferies, Jr.; Finance, Mrs. S. H. Brown; Hospitality, Mrs. Carmela Johnston; International Relations, Mrs. James Stanton; Legislation, Mrs. F. C. Hutchinson; Literature, Mrs. Laura Callihan; Music, Mrs. Robert Morrison; Press, Mrs. Mahel Hunsicker; Program, Miss Mina Rose Lyle; Transportation, Mrs. C. H. Schweinsberg; Welfare, Miss Emma Kay Crowley; Auditing, Mrs. Frederick Robb, Jr.

The new officers, in addition to Miss Staples, are Miss Lyle, first vice-president; Mrs. Brown, second vice-president; Mrs. George Albert, secretary; Miss Kay Wheeler, director.

The literature group will see "Noah" at Hedgerow, on Thursday. Their final meeting is June 16, in charge of Mrs. Robert Morrison, Narberth Hall.

The Junior Club dance is this Saturday (see Fireside).

The Food Department

Of the Caledonian Market sponsored by the Main Line Federation of Churches 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. next Tuesday, will be managed by Mrs. Warren D. Wright and twelve aides from the Narberth Presbyterian Church. They will make sandwiches to order and have tea, coffee, ice cream and cake. The market, with curios, old books, flowers and plants, candy, etc., is patterned after the old London Caledonian Market and will be held on the grounds of the Haverford Friends School, Buck lane, Haverford.

Township-Borough Democrats

On Tuesday night re-elected John T. Durnin, Overbrook Hills, chairman of the Democratic Committee of Lower Merion and Narberth.

The committee members also re-elected R. Meade Smith, Haverford, as vice chairman and treasurer, and Mrs. Joseph Flaherty, Cynwyd, secretary.

At the meeting, held in the Township Building, Ardmore, William J. Carey, West Ardmore, proposed that Mr. Durnin be endorsed for county chairman, the post now held by Frank J. Bradley, Norristown. The local committee approved the motion.

Penn Valley's Boy Scout

Troop will have a Court of Honor at Montgomery School, Tuesday the 14th, to which all persons interested in scouting are invited.

A Recital

Of Mrs. Mildred W. Baily's pupils will be held 7:45 P. M. next Thursday at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. The public is invited.

Next Week's Our Town

Will be dedicated to the graduates.

The Borough Boys Have a Ball Team--The Narberth Sluggers

It is developing into a new Narberth Boys' Club, to meet in the Legion Room of the Community Building, with football and basketball added to its present baseball function, and swimming too, maybe. Membership in the club is open to all boys—for it's non-partisan, non-sectarian between the ages of 11 and 14.

Membership on the ball team, though, is closed. There are more than nine regular players already, and they're going places. Playing all their games on the Narberth ball field, they have for opponents such teams as St. Margaret's—this Saturday at 10 A. M., Upper Darby Grammar School—next Tuesday at 4 P. M., and Friends Central and Lee School.

The boys made $47 and bought their own uniforms, and plan to play in them every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon and Saturday morning that they can find a team to slug against. For they make no bones of the fact that they are the Narberth Sluggers, grooming for places, eventually, on a Narberth ball team that they hope will win Main Line championships with the help of exclusively local talent.

Jim Pruitt is president of the club, Ken Wilson is vice-president, and Bob Compton is secretary and Dick Whiting treasurer.

The team: Greer Heindel, p; Jim Pruitt, c; Ken Wilson, 1b; Dick Whiting, 2b; Bob Tabor, 3b and captain; Henry Spinelli, ss; Ed Gorman, cf; Dick Whiting, lf; Bob Compton, rf and manager; and Howard Biddle, Jim McQuiston and Harry Ullman, substitutes.

Narberth men to whom credit goes for helping the boys get started, are Bob Hood, Eddie Ensinger, Earl Diekey, Eck Burgess, Lou Ricklin and Bill Durbin; and one who asks to remain anonymous, but at whose home, Windsor avenue, facing the playground, the club came into being, a new proof of the character and the deeds that thrive in the atmosphere of the borough.

Legion Sponsors

This afternoon, at 3:30, all boys aged 14 to 18, are invited to report at the Narberth ball diamond to apply for membership on a new ball team. Sponsored by the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, it will be one of a league of Legion-organized teams with whom it will play—Willow Grove, Fort Washington, Norristown, Bridgeport, Ardmore, and Linwood.

Practice of the Narberth team starts today, with Alan Weatherall, of the Narberth School, as coach; Harvey Cook as manager, Walter Humphries and Eddie Ensinger as assistant coaches, and Frank Challenger for secretary-treasurer.

The team will be intermediate between the Narberth Sluggers, mentioned elsewhere in this issue, and the regular ball team, which the Legion team, like the Sluggers, will eventually supply with talent, it is hoped.

Boys will be chosen for berths on the team before June 25. Today's the day to see Coach Weatherall.

Practice will be 3:30 P. M. daily except Saturdays.

Winner of the section's league games will compete in larger contests leading up to a State championship.

A-Flying

Last Sunday, went Win and Harry Scott, of Lantwyn lane, at Roosevelt Airport.

Bowl of Rice

Party for China is June 17 in Wynnewood

A committee composed mostly of Main Liners met Wednesday at the Shanghai Gardens in Philadelphia to plan for the bowl of rice party which the Philadelphia section will give at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, June 17, at "Deedene," the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Boericke, in Wynnewood, simultaneously with 2000 other communities for Civilian Relief in China.

Mrs. Boericke will show movies of Peking and the surrounding territory which she took on a visit to her daughter in 1936 and will relate much first-hand information from her daughter and son-in-law who still reside there.

Other speakers will be Dr. Henry W. Luce, of Haverford, one-time pastor in China and now working for Chinese Relief in this country; and Samuel J. Mills, Bible teacher at Haverford College, who has worked on famine relief in China. Chinese musicians will play. Tickets, which are one dollar, can be procured from members of the committee.

Committee members are: Co-chairmen, Mrs. Philip E. Hughes and Mrs. Morris L. Shipley, of Haverford; treasurer, William J. Lloyd, of Narberth; Program, Mrs. E. W. Heymann, of Narberth, chairman, and Mrs. Richard Winkelman, of Ardmore, and Miss Florence B. Scott, of Wynnewood; Tickets and Posters, Mrs. Samuel Yellin, of Wynnewood; Publicity, Mrs. Leon W. Melcher, of Cynwyd, and Mrs. F. N. Floyd, of Merion; Miss Lidia G. de Calderon, of Philadelphia, Miss Ellen Starr Brinton, of Narberth, Mrs. F. C. Hartshorne, of Cynwyd, Mrs. Chester L. Baker, of Penn Wynne, Mrs. Edwin N. Brown, of Ardmore, Mrs. H. Childs Hodgins, of Cynwyd, Mrs. Boericke, Mrs. Chester C. McKibbin, of Narberth, Dr. William W. Comfort, president of Haverford College; and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie R. Severinghaus, of Ardmore.

The committee will meet to make final plans 10:30 A. M. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Samuel Yellin, in Wynnewood.

King Sing Thoms, owner of the Shanghai Gardens and unofficial mayor of Philadelphia's Chinatown, presented to the committee a Chinese panel in water colors to be auctioned off at the party, and started the contributions by giving them a rice bowl containing a dollar.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., National chairman of the United Council for Civilian Relief in China, said in an address at the commemoration of China's "Democracy Day" in New York, May 17, "the way to minimize wars is to preserve democracy, where the people control their own affairs and cannot be hurled into battle by a dictator. In the name of our own democracy, the least we can do is to aid China's women and children."

Narberth Sinks

Two Holiday Games in Wide Open Race.

BY JOHN MULLIGAN

There's no mistake in the "standings."—Believe it or not, Narberth's warriors of the diamond are sunk deep in a tie for fifth place in the Main Line Baseball League as a result of a hectic week-end and holiday.

Even the lowly Upper Darby team shades Gene Davis' boys as Gladwyne's first conqueror, Berwyn, shares the top rung with the Key-Nells.

It's news when Narberth drops two successive decisions to league foes. The Davismen, after shellacking Angora, 13-0 away on Saturday, traveled to Manoa the next day and were nosed out, 4-3 in a thriller. Then the defending champions bowed to a key-up Coatesville club, 5-3 here Monday afternoon. Narberth nipped Crescentville, 6-5 in a fast independent game played in the morning.

The Davismen will invade Berwyn for a crucial game tomorrow and will entertain the West Phils on the borough field Sunday.

Narberth started fast with four runs in the first against Angora as Nick Lyons turned in his second victory. Claude Bailey, with four hits, and George Gazella and Roger Malseed with two each, were the leading hitters for the homesters. Gazella slammed one for the circuit with a man on in the fourth, as the locals piled up 10 blows.

Al Herrmann hooked up with Walter Azzell in a pitchers' battle at Manoa and the latter had the better of it. Each struck out four. Buddy Walker had two of Narberth's seven hits and Malseed contributed a triple. Narberth scored once in the first, but Manoa got all of its runs in a hectic according to Dr. William L. Martin, of Merion Park, addressing the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Tuesday, average more here than elsewhere.

Deaths From Appendectomy,

He stressed the need for warning the public and especially youths in their teens, where mortality is greatest, to beware laxatives when abdominal pains come, and to call a doctor promptly, especially when the pains last as long as four hours.

Gene Davis will have charge of next Tuesday's meeting, and the following week's will be the annual outing.

Town & Township

Editor Edwards:

The idea of enlarging Narberth's paper, OUR TOWN, which is doing a good job, into Town and Township, which can do a much better one for the Eastern Main Line, seems to me to be a very good one, and I'm all for it.

Around the Town

A little better attention to staging—such as was shown by the school authorities in producing the pageant in Narberth Park recently—would help the Memorial Day exercises at the playground. . . . Only a few of the spectators at Wynnewood road and Windsor avenue were able to hear the Rev. Robert E. Keightley's invocation, the Rev. W. Vernon Middleton's patriotic address, Commander Walter P. Mieson's proclamation. If not a loud-speaker to amplify their words, at least a temporary platform would help by raising the speakers above the heads of the crowd; it would carry their voices farther.

Fine things, these junior ball teams that are forming. Here's to the day when Narberth will have a championship team consisting entirely of local talent.

The Rev. Clarence Joseph Good-year's first mass, Sunday at St. Margaret's, was attended by many a Catholic, many a non-Catholic.

Further evidence that Narberth is "tops" was given by the sale of Air Mail stamps the day, Thursday the 19th, of Air Mail Week that a plane picked up mail at Narberth and Paoli. The sale of Air Mail stamps that day was 479 in Narberth, and 370 for all the rest of the Main Line.

Railroad Safety

Is at its Peak, C. F. Trowbridge
Tells Lions

Mr. Trowbridge, who lives at 519 S. Narberth avenue, Merion, is division engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad. In a recent talk to the Wayne Lions Club he said the combination of improved safety features with the recent rate reductions make railroads the most nearly ideal means of transportation obtainable.

When city fire apparatus proved ineffectual against the sweep of the colobist which laid waste to the entire city of Chicago in 1871, Gen. Philip Sheridan directed U. S. troops in the dynamiting of several important buildings in the hope of halting the gas-lane flames. In "In Old Chicago" the same historic scene is recreated in every detail with Sidney Blackmer in the role of Sheridan. The film is now at the Suburban Theater and Anthony Wayne starting tomorrow. It stars Tyrone Power, Alice Faye and Don Ameche.

second and then held the visitors off when they managed to get two in the fourth.

Chet Haupt, one of the circuit's better hurlers, earned the decision over Tommy Byrne, whom Manager Gene sent to the hill Monday afternoon before a large holiday gathering. Byrne pitched seven frames and was tagged for seven hits. Haupt whiffed two and walked one and was given good support to check the determined Narberth sticksmiths.

Narberth's ill fortune seems to emphasize the fact that this year's race will be a wide open affair with no team seeming to have any decided edge. However, the Davismen are known as late starters and no doubt soon will be moving into their accustomed place at or near the top.

The Fireside

Gala event of the week is the Junior Women's Community Club dance at Golf Club, 50th and Woodbine, this Saturday evening, under direction of the chairman, Miss Marjorie Hoffman. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Spencer Smith, the retiring president, and Mrs. Glenn Williams. Mrs. William C. Claghorn, Chestnut avenue, entertained at luncheon and bridge Tuesday in honor of Mrs. L. M. Eichenberger, of Boston; Mrs. A. N. McCall, Mrs. L. L. Crehen, Mrs. A. W. Lawton, Mrs. A. M. Buck, Mrs. A. W. Armstrong and Mrs. Vera Lyon.

The A. Nelson Clarkes, Wynmore road, Wynnewood, were the guests of Mrs. E. E. Ortenger, of Ocean City, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Torrey, of Wynnewood, formerly of Narberth, have issued invitations for a dinner Thursday evening, June 30, in honor of Miss Louise Calven Lea, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland E. Lea, of Devon. The card of Mr. Donald E. Torrey, Jr., is enclosed.

The guests will later attend the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Harrison K. Canon, Jr., and Mrs. J. Wallace Hollowell, will give at the Aronsonk Golf Club in honor of their debutante daughters, Miss Katharine Keon-Canon, and Miss Anne Hollowell.

Mrs. J. P. Horlacher, Jr., of Essex avenue, entertained her club at luncheon and bridge Saturday at Wynnewood House.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Dumes, Grayling avenue, gave a birthday party Monday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Betty Mae Dumes. The guests were Miss Joan McLaughlin, Ardmore; Miss Peggy Evans, Wynnewood; and Miss Claire De Hart, Miss Eleanor Klapper, Miss Shirley Bacey, Miss Barbara Woodrow, Miss Dorothy Nonemaker, Miss Peggy Burns, Miss Loretta Lillis, Miss Baby Fischer, Miss Catherine Bloom, and Miss Helen Wiedemann, all of Narberth.

Mrs. Arthur A. Bailey and Mrs. Franklin Maxwell will give a shower Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Bailey, Kenilworth road, Merion, in honor of Miss Mary Jane Boxman, whose marriage will take place June 11.

Miss Boxman has also been the guest of honor at showers given by Mrs. John Mansfield, Mrs. Herbert John Egnore, Miss Ruth Egnore, Miss Ruth Gaul, her bridge club and her sorority, the Beta Kappa.

Mrs. A. Perry Redifer, Sr., Essex avenue, is visiting in Avalon.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kirkpatrick, Essex avenue, their daughter, Mrs. Walter Hunsicker, and her children are cottaging in Ocean City this month of June.

Miss Martha Stoudt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Stoudt, Woodside avenue, spent the holidays in Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dougherty, of Altoona, were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Verna R. Woodcock, of Montgomery avenue, for a week until Tuesday.

Mr. Parker Woolmington, who is attending Wheaton College, will arrive next week to spend several days with his parents, the Clarence H. Woolmingtons, of Narbrook Park, before returning to attend summer school.

Miss Agnes Rose, of Linden, N. J., spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Agnes Rose, Woodside avenue.

Miss Lilian C. Dorsey, of Narberth, whose marriage to Mr. W. Moore Harvey, of Philadelphia, takes place June 18, has been feted at numerous showers. In March she was surprised with a linen shower given by Mrs. J. M. Casey and Miss Betty Schraishuhn. The following month brought a kitchen shower from the Misses Dorothy Hood, Anne Brenna and Helen Kromer. In May, Mrs. Thomas Marvel and Miss Cardella Harvey surprised her with a lingerie shower. Tuesday evening, May 24, the girls with whom Miss Dorsey works at the Norristown Courthouse, gave her a miscellaneous shower sponsored by Miss Betty Shearer, at the Valley Forge Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Smith, Essex avenue, will leave Monday for a week's trip to Albany and also to Staten Island, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. John Marburger.

Announcement

Has been made of the engagement of Miss Margaret Moody, of Scotts Bluff, Nebraska, to Mr. Alexander Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Royal D. Thomas, Braeburn lane, Penn Valley. Miss Moody is a graduate of the University of Missouri. Mr. Thomas will graduate from Wesleyan University, Middleton, Conn., this month. The wedding will take place in Middleton, June 15. They will make their home in Cambridge, Mass., after September 1.

Merion

Mrs. Robert B. Reinhart, of Heath road, returned on Saturday from a several days' stay in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. McClelland, of S. Latches lane, will give a tea at the Merion Tribute House on Saturday, June 11, from 4 to 6:30 p. m., to introduce their daughter, Miss Marion Child McClelland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nevin Pomeroy, of Germantown, will entertain at dinner at the Philadelphia Country Club for the members of the receiving party and additional guests.

Miss McClelland will also be the guest of honor at a swimming party on June 29 to be given by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Fernley, of Plymouth Meeting.

The Marriage of Miss Mary Jane Boxman daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boxman, of Merion avenue, and Mr. Jordan H. Gaul, Jr., son of Mrs. Jordan H. Gaul and the late Mr. Gaul, of Lima avenue, will take place at four o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 11, in the Parish Hall of St. Margaret's Church, Narberth.

Mrs. Robert T. Godland, the bride's sister, will be her matron of honor, and Mr. Herbert John Egnore, Jr., will be best man.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the Bala Golf Club.

Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. Gaul and his bride will reside at 820 Montgomery avenue, Narberth.

Narberth's First June Bride of 1938 Will be—

Miss Muriel Wales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Wales, Windsor avenue, and Mr. Harry Archley Bennett, Narberth. The wedding is Saturday, June 4, at three o'clock, in All Saints' Church, Wynnewood. The Reverend Gibson Bell will officiate.

Miss Eloise Harnden will be maid of honor and the flower girls will include Miss Sally Biddle and Miss Marilyn Downs.

Mr. Robert Granville Bennett will be the best man for his brother.

The ushers will be Mr. Frederick Robb, Jr., and Mr. Douglass Stoneall Livingston.

Congratulated

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Tidd, Clarendon road, Penn Valley, are being congratulated on the birth of a son, Tuesday the 31st.

Penn Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Brearly, of Manor road and Millers lane, and their daughter, Miss Betty Brearly, gave a house party at their summer home in Ocean City last week-end. The guests were Miss Norma Force, Miss Claire Belber, Mrs. Mabel Armstrong, Mr. William Munroe, Mr. John Blunt and Mr. Jack Noble. Miss Brearly will graduate from Friend's Central School Friday, June 10. Next fall she will go to Penn Hall at Chambersburg.

Miss Eloise Harnden, daughter of the Charles E. Harndens, Moreno road, gave a shower last Tuesday in honor of Miss Muriel Wales, whose marriage to Mr. Harry Archley Bennett will take place Saturday.

Modern days bring better ways of washing . .

To you and you and you

And so, as a solution to your laundry problems, we suggest the hand laundry . . .

the Narberth Hand Laundry . . .

Why?

We're conveniently near you, and as your neighbors we are able to give you reliable and interested services that you can get nowhere else . .

Such as:

Well, shirts are one of our specialties . . . We starch them just right; they're spotlessly white . . . and we turn frayed collars and sew on buttons—with no extra charge!

As for blankets, fluffy, feathery, clean-smelling—we dry them with a special process . . . at no extra charge.

And rugs, and furniture covers

we clean them clean as a whistle.

Housecleaning?

Now's the time to call on us to help you, by washing thoroughly clean, everything you'll want to put away for summer, and everything else that you'll want to show off, clean and fresh during the hot weather.

A Tribute . . .

I've built a tribute o'er this place, Where dwell the names that are my race. In endless honor, timeless grace, I have remembered them.

I've crowned this quiet place with art, To set their hallowed sleep apart, With love . . . to live beyond my heart, I have remembered them.

I've marked this place that they be known; That silence need not watch alone, With mem'ries shrined in votive stone, I have remembered them.
